In 2006, the Columbus Museum of Art organized a major traveling retrospective, Symphonic Poem: The Art of Aminah Brenda Lynn Robinson accompanied by a 204-page catalogue. www.aminahsworld.org

In the ACA Galleries exhibition, Aminah takes us along on her journey through an ancestral memory across eight hundred years of history of her native Ohio. She leads us through Medieval centuries of imagined human migrations into Ohio. These migrations, though represented as movements of people, are for Robinson really migrations of soul, spirit and story, many of them inspired by whimsical stories transmitted in Robinson's childhood by her beloved Uncle Alvin.

Robinson is the recipient of many Grants and Fellowships in addition to the MacArthur "Genius" Award (2004) including the Ohio Arts Council Visual Arts Travel Fellowship, Israel (1998); Pollock-Krasner Foundation Grant (1997); Minority Artist Fellowship from the NEA (1989).
